Salted Coated Rustic Fries

Lutosa is proud to present the Salted Coated Rustic Fries. We call them "rustic" because they are both chunky, skin-on and salted just like in the olden days.

Our latest addition to the (CRISPYSALTED) range of fries, they are coated and salted both inside and out, resulting in a crispy bite, followed by the satisfying experience of the yummy interior. Who could possibly resist?

Already salted, all you need to do is fry or bake them to perfection and serve them on a plate. Enjoy!

Be warned: highly addictive!
