

Bornibus Celebrates its 170th Anniversary with the Palme d'Or Internationale of the Comité de France

On the occasion of its 170th anniversary, Maison Bornibus, a symbol of French culinary savoir-faire, has been awarded the Palme d'Or Internationale of the Comité de France. This prestigious honour is accompanied by a Diploma of Merit and National Prestige, in recognition of the House's enduring contribution to the international influence of French gastronomy.

A Celebrated Heritage

Did not Alexandre Dumas, author of The Three Musketeers and The Count of Monte Cristo, once declare: “When chance led me to taste the mustard of Monsieur Alexandre Bornibus, I understood that one day it must surpass all others...”? A timeless testimony that encapsulates the historic mastery of our brand.

An Exceptional Distinction

Bestowed by the Comité de France, the Palme d'Or Internationale pays tribute to enterprises and individuals who contribute to the renown of French culinary art across the world. This distinction underscores Maison Bornibus's ability to embody the values of quality, authenticity, and tradition that form the very essence of French gastronomy, consecrating us as true Ambassadors of our nation.

A Unique Ceremony at the Palais du Luxembourg

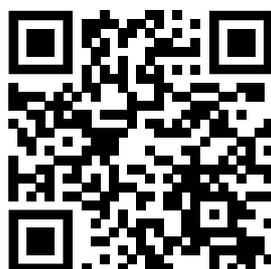

The Trophy and the Diploma of Honour were presented on 5 February to Sydney Knafou, CEO of CASIMEX and proprietor of the brand, during a ceremony held in the prestigious Salon Napoléon of the French Senate, in the presence of numerous elected officials and members of the press.

Towards the Future

This accolade marks a pivotal milestone for Maison Bornibus, which continues to craft refined recipes whilst safeguarding the heritage that defines its singular identity. The brand reaffirms its ambition to conquer new horizons, ever carrying forward the colours of French taste.
