

Leighton Foods A/S – New partnership with Broken Taco & Sticky Fingers

The stage is yours, Broken Taco & Sticky Fingers! The new, trendy “street food styled” brands for tortilla chips, sauces & dips, wraps, spice mixes & various side dishes with culinary influences from Mexico and the southwestern United States.

“It’s been a hell of a ride with a funny and party-like vibe with chefs, bartenders and food producers from California, Texas, and Arizona. They are all guilty of bringing these unique products to life,” says Jon Christian Opøien, the Norwegian inventor of the Broken Taco and Sticky Fingers brand duo.

All products are restaurant quality, particularly flavorful, and feature a trendy design. Try Broken Taco and Sticky Fingers products for yourself - you'll be delighted!

Visit us at our booth and see the unique quality of our products for yourself—you'll find us in Hall 5.2, Booth D034.
